

CIVIL WAR AGAIN SEEMS NEAR IN CHINA

BATTLE EMINENT FOR POSSESSION OF SOUTHERN CAPITAL

Argument Starts Thru An Attack of Huddleston of Alabama—Representative Blanton of Texas Defends Officer—Says He Would Make Him a Brigadier General

(By The Associated Press)
CANTON, Feb. 3.—With 40,000 troops under General Hsu Tsung-Chi marching on Canton to reclaim the southern capital for Sun Yat Sen and a sanguinary battle imminent, foreign warships anchored in the river today for the purpose of protecting the interests of nationals. Conditions in the city are chaotic. All business houses are closed and barricaded.

The American Cruiser Helena, with four British, one French and one Italian gunboat is standing by in the event of hostilities which are expected at any time. General Hsu and his army are coming from Swatow, according to reports, with the intention of ousting the troops from Yunan and Kwangsi provinces who occupy the southern capital.

LAST CONCESSIONS ARE MADE BY THE ALLIES TO TURKS

No One Dare Predict What Action Turks Will Take Today

(By The Associated Press)
LAUSANNE, Feb. 3.—No one tonight dares predict whether the Turks will sign the treaty tomorrow. The allies have made their last concessions, which are so considerable that some of the delegates remark that if the Turks do not sign they must be made.

Ambassador Child again played a leading part in these closing hours—closing they are—since Lord Curzon insists he is returning to London tomorrow night with his delegation.

Ismet Pasha spent two hours with the American ambassador but is noncommittal as to whether he would place his signature on the treaty or reject it. Nevertheless Mr. Child said afterward: "I am optimistic."

The French spokesman referred to Ismet Pasha's disconcerting attitude of reserve in all of today's conversations. The general impression is that the Turkish with habitual oriental deliberation to come to a decision, will hold back until the last moment then sign.

The Associated Press correspondent obtained a copy of the allies' last compromise on capitulations which was handed to Ismet Pasha today and which is of especial interest to American residents in Turkey. So as not to offend Turkish pride this will not be incorporated in the treaty of peace, but will stand as a declaration by the Turkish delegation. Turkey engages to employ legal counselors chosen from a list drawn by the permanent court of international justice.

These counselors will participate in the preparation of legislative reforms and will be assigned to judicial districts of the courts of appeal at Constantinople and Smyrna and the ordinary courts at Samsun and Adana. They will not sit as judges, but will have the right to receive complaints from foreigners respecting the administration of the law and submit such complaints to competent Turkish authorities in order to insure strict observance of the Turkish code.

ATTORNEY SLACK LEAVES THE JOB

(By The Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 3.—L. E. Slack, appointed assistant attorney general of the United States in charge of the government's coal conspiracy cases more than two years ago admitted today that he had resigned following receipt of a letter from Attorney General Daugherty. He declined to discuss the letter further than to say it contained information regarding disposition of the conspiracy case. He said any information regarding his resignation should come from Washington.

RUHR SITUATION DRIFTING BACK TO REGULAR ROUTINE

Residents Are Outwardly Reconciled to French Forces

(By The Associated Press)
DUSSELDORF, Feb. 3.—The situation in the Ruhr is drifting back to the regular routine. The population gradually are becoming outwardly reconciled to the presence of the occupying forces and the resistance of the functionaries appears to be faltering. The possibility of a general rising against the French seems remote. Incidents of violence may continue such as a killing of a German civilian by a French sentry at Brecht last night but conditions appear to be settling down until one of the warring parties abandons the economic battle. It is reported the Brecht civilian who was killed failed to halt when challenged.

Sixty six barges loaded with coal according to the official figures have been despatched to Strasbourg and sixty three more which were confiscated, are lying along the Rhine awaiting tug to tow them up the river. The barges average about 1,000 tons each. Ten tugs with French crews are now working up and down the Rhine.

Coal Production Shrinks
The coal forwarded by rail into France is about half the amount floated; thus the total coal the French have got out of the Ruhr since the occupation is a little more than 200,000 tons, whereas under the old system they would have received 400,000 in the same period.

General Payot explains that the services are hampered by the necessity of replacing the strikers, insuring food supplies, and for similar reason but he expects to remove much larger quantities of coal daily to France the beginning of next week.

The Germans are not attempting to approach the French control posts and run the coal trains to within a few miles of the occupation eastern and southern frontier, where they abandon them, causing much congestion. The locks are completely under French control in both the Rhine and Lippe canals. The French also control the high roads leading into unoccupied Germany.

The occupying authorities have assured the German officials and workers who have disregarded Berlin's strike orders that their salaries will be paid if they continue to discharge their duties. Many of the Germans have elected to remain.

The French have enlarged their area of occupation toward the Cologne bridgehead, occupying railway stations at Vohwinkel, Lennep, Berg and Bonn, virtually surrounding Eberfeld. These places were taken in the French drive around the Ruhr thru which trains might pass to the south. The troops used in the new occupation zone were taken from Dortmund, which is virtually evacuated.

FIRE RAGES IN AUSTIN, MINNESOTA

(By The Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Minn., Feb. 3.—A fire, which, aided by an explosion that tore out the front and rear of a local furniture store started to burn about 10:30 P. M., tonight, and had caused damage estimated at between $150,000 and $200,000 before midnight and was still raging.

Three men were injured in the blast. Matt Ousley, owner of the furniture store where the fire started was dazed and severely bruised when the explosion hurled part of the front of his store upon him as he stood in the street watching firemen combat the flames. Two firemen on a ladder were hurled from their perch when the ladder fell, slamming them on the pavement. Both were severely shaken and bruised.

TWO CHARGED WITH VIOLATING MANN ACT

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 3.—Charged with violating the Mann act, two middle aged Bloomington men were lodged in jail here last night and later released on $3,000 bond, pending action of the federal grand jury. The men's names were given as Isaac Bishop and Edward E. Perkins. It is charged that they went to St. Louis with Bishop's 13 year old daughter, and another girl, aged 19. Investigators said they had stopped at St. Louis, Chicago and Milwaukee.

Look For But Little Business This Week

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 3.—A dull session is anticipated in the fifty-third general assembly during the coming week, beginning Tuesday. The senate rules committee will make its report Wednesday and if all are adopted in their present form the upper branch will be ready to settle down to business.

Little action is expected as most of the legislators who have bills before either house are holding back in presenting measures and are observing the trend of affairs in the Chicago mayoralty primary campaign.

Last session at this time more than twice the number of bills now in both houses were presented and half as many had been reported out of committees.

During the coming week both houses will go to Urbana to visit the University of Illinois. A special train will carry the members from here leaving some time Wednesday. The members will leave the university Thursday for their homes, returning here the Tuesday following.

It is believed that the impeachment resolutions presented in the house a few weeks ago by Representative Michael L. Igoe, Democrat, will be called during the next two weeks. A number of members have expressed themselves as in favor of an impeachment of the governor and claim they are willing to consider the resolution involving him, but at the same time are not willing to call up the remaining two resolutions affecting the Lieutenant Governor, Fred E. Sterling, and State Auditor Andrew Russell, of Jacksonville.

Some house members have made known their intention to

TWO EARTHQUAKES ARE FELT THRUOUT COUNTRY SATURDAY

One Was of Unusual Proportions and Not Yet Located

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Two distinct earthquakes, one of tremendous and unusual proportions, the other of moderate intensity occurred today but their exact location could not be determined from the records of the delicate seismograph and scientists differed widely in their opinion as to the regions affected.

The first quake, the worst of the two, was estimated to have been centered 5,000 miles from Washington. Its tremors continued for more than three hours and before they had ended the seismographs recorded a second series of shocks estimated to be at another point between 3,500 and 3,700 miles from Washington.

Seismologists were much at variance on their estimates as to the exact location of the major disturbance. Designations ranged from Alaska the Alutian Islands and the Arctic Region on the north to Northern Argentina on the south. On the west the range was from the bed of the Pacific Ocean at a point southwest of Lower California to the vicinity of the Marshall Islands, between Hawaii and the Philippines, and in Japan.

Prompt radio communication with Japan disclosed no unusual disturbances in that country.

Inasmuch as telegraphic or cable communications brought no intimation of any earthquake in Hawaii, the Philippines, Alaska, or the countries of South America it is considered most probable that the disturbances were submarine shocks or sea quakes, which never will be definitely located.

The heavier of the two quakes began at 11:13 A. M., when the first preliminary tremors were recorded on the seismographs of Georgetown University here and were recorded at 11:23.

The maximum vibrations were at 11:40 and continued for 10 minutes during which the needles on one of the Georgetown seismographs were thrown off the records. The tremors were continuing when the preliminary waves of the second quake were recorded at 1:54 P. M. The secondary tremors of this quake were recorded at 2:02 P. M. It was not until about 5 P. M. that the tremors died away.

ICY BLASTS FROM NORTH POLE SWEEP THE CENTRAL WEST

Cold Wave Extending its Clutch Toward Sunny Florida

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—With the entire central west shivering in the grip of icy blasts straight from the North Pole a cold wave tonight was extending its clutch from the far northwest toward sunny Florida and from New York to San Francisco, rolling down the mercury to new low records.

In Chicago the mercury tumbled more than 30 degrees in 12 hours and the weather bureau predicted that the bottom would not be reached until it touched six degrees below zero. Eveleth, Minn., the coldest spot in the United States reported minimum temperatures 45 degrees below zero. In Minneapolis it was 25 degrees below and St. Paul and Bismarck, N. D., registered one degree higher.

On their way to Chicago the icy blasts brought no seasonal records in many parts of Iowa and Nebraska as they spread over the lower lake region, the Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the interior of the east gulf states and moved toward the Atlantic Coast which they were expected to reach tomorrow. In the southlands the weather disturbances were confined to high winds and rains, the most considerable damage in the vicinity of Savage, Miss., where scores of persons were left homeless.

As an offset to depleted coal bins, health authorities reported that the cold wave would act as a curb on the increase of influenza and pneumonia.

No warm weather is in sight for the central west the weather bureau here announced and predicted generally fair weather for the next few days with temperatures below the seasonal normal. The regions for which this prediction was made included Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and South Dakota.

The zero line in this region extended today from Alpena, Mich., southwest thru Chicago and Peoria and then found the boundary line of Iowa and Missouri, extending south to Dodge City, passing thru Kansas and then going northwest to Denver and turning north to the Yellowstone National Park and on into Canada.

A strong northwest wind continued to travel as advance guard of the cold wave tonight although weather forecasts said it would become light and variable within a few hours.

REPRESENTATIVES IN WRANGLE ABOUT ARMY ACTIVITIES YESTERDAY

General Hsu Tsung Chi Marching on City of Canton With 40,000 Troops—Plan to Reclaim City for Sun Yat Sen—Foreign Ships Anchored in River for Emergencies

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Activities of the intelligence department of the army were attacked in the house today by Representative Huddleston, Democrat, Alabama, who charged that if present methods were continued congressional committees soon would be under surveillance.

Mr. Huddleston read a newspaper article dealing with political and other conditions in the northwest which quoted a letter purporting to have been written to sheriff and other peace officers by Lieutenant W. B. Long of Vancouver Barracks, Washington. The letter mentions among others, the American Federation of Labor, certain railroad unions, a world war veterans' organization and the I. W. W.

"This typifies the military mind," said Mr. Huddleston. Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, replying to Mr. Huddleston, said if he were secretary of war he "would not stop until this young lieutenant had been made a brigadier general."

Conditions in the northwest, Blanton said, had developed a situation where a man running for office ran either as a "radical" or a "conservative."

Lieutenant Long, Mr. Blanton contended should be commended for keeping his eyes open to anything which might threaten the American theory of government.

Declaring the American Federation of Labor and the Big Four railroad brotherhoods contained some of the most patriotic men in the country, Representative Lindberger, Republican, California, asked if Mr. Blanton included them in his remarks.

The Texas representative replied that Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor had condemned the Harrison, Arkansas, lynching of a railroad worker, but had failed to ask for punishment of those who engaged in the killings at Herrin, Illinois. He added that it might have been an inadvertent organization to be included in the list and that he was concerned mostly with the activities of the I. W. W.

Representative London, Socialist, New York, declared that interference by the military authorities in civil affairs threatened the whole structure of the American form of government.

PROVISIONS IN ARMY BILL GIVEN O. K. BY SENATE

Important Provisions are Approved Without Much Parley

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Many of the most important provisions of the army bill including the provision for a personnel of 125,000 men and 12,000 officers, were approved today by the senate within a few hours after consideration of the measure was begun.

No move to reduce the personnel figures, which will keep the army at its present strength was made. Committee amendments increasing appropriations for the army's organized reserves and civilian training camp activities also were approved but no action was taken on the Muscle Shoals and rivers and harbors sections.

The house provision withholding retired pay to Major General Harbord former deputy chief of staff who has accepted a position with a radio concern also went over until next week after Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia and Chairman Wadsworth of the military committee had made speeches attacking it.

Senator Wadsworth said that General Harbord's radio company had just $60 worth of business with the government last month.

FOUR TIDAL WAVES DO DAMAGE IN THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Caused Apparently by Four Earthquakes in Pacific

(By The Associated Press)
HONOLULU, Feb. 3.—Four tidal waves apparently rising from an earthquake in the Pacific swept the shores of the islands of the Hawaiian group shortly after noon today. When they receded they left scenes of desolation of considerable dimensions. In the wake, took a toll of lives estimated at from four to ten and tossed about like corks ships anchored, the bays or tied to docks.

On the island of Oahu 500 waves struck Hialewa, with secondary effects visible in Honolulu Bay where the water rose and receded a maximum of six feet.

A section of the Oahu railroad tracks skirting the ocean at Mokuia, about four miles west of Hialewa, was washed out as several bridges. Persons who served the waves said that "the whole sea seemed to rise up."

The heaviest damage was at Hilo, where the only deaths, the Japanese fishermen, were reported. At this place, the tide wave swamped practically all sampans in Hilo harbor. O sampans was seen on the crest of waves running at full speed, disappeared and those aboard are missing. The waves on the Hilo water front were thrown in the streets, their foundations being swept by the rushing waters. Many drivers of automobiles abandoned their cars when they saw the huge waves sweep toward them. The Standard tanker, Doane, was in evident distress in the bay here tonight.

She was believed to be on sand bar whistling for assistance. On the island of Maui, a tide wave brought serious injury. Dr. L. C. Smith, whose automobile was hurled by the wave over a fence and overturned. Dr. Smith is suffering from a broken leg and other injuries.

The high waters washed on the streets of the water from Kahului wrecking the wharf and destroying the freight in the buildings. The Kahului damage is estimated at $500,000.

OVERRULES DEMURRER FILED BY TERRITORY

(By The Associated Press)
HONOLULU, Feb. 3.—U. S. District Judge Banks today overruled the demurrer filed by the territory to the injunction restraining the Japanese language schools from enforcing the regulations providing for the elimination of foreign languages in the first and second grades and the substitution of English. The court modified the injunction to hold that the school law was constitutional and not a violation of the treaty between the United States and Japan.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM
RESOLUTIONS
By Berton Braley
My salary commences
To vanish ere it's earned,
I cannot meet expenses,
Though why I've never learned.
In spite of how we plan, we Remain in debt and doubt,
We can't explain, nor can we Make it out.

We really ought to flourish,
My income's pretty good,
And yet we scarcely nourish
Our bodies as we should.
Our problem—who shall judge it?
There's just one way, we sigh,
"We've got to keep a budget—
Bye and Bye."

WHERE does the money go to?
It's quite too tough for words,
To think of all we throw to
The little dicky birds.
A bank account we're craving,
Alas the dollars fly!
And we, instead of saving,
Buy and buy.

SOME day, when we get to it,
We'll keep a ledger, planned
To show us, when we view it,
Exactly how we stand;
But now—we merely fudge it,
And watch our debts run high,
We sure must keep a budget
Bye and bye!

BIG TREAT IN STORE FOR THEATER PATRONS
The theatrical event of the season will be the engagement of "The Circle," which the Selwyns will offer with an all-star cast at the Grand, Thursday, Feb. 15.
The splendid comedy "The Circle," with a jubilee of stars including Wilton Lackaye, Henry E. Dixey, Amelia Bingham, Charlotte Walker and Norman Hackett. With such an array of talent in a play that is conceded by critics to be the smartest that has been seen in the metropolis in years, the engagement of "The Circle" here will be the most brilliant that local theater-goers have had the opportunity of witnessing in a long time.
The Selwyns selected "The Circle" from many plays in London last season as an attraction for the Selwyn Theater. The Naughtan comedy had been playing for a year at the Haymarket Theater and so impressed was Mr. Archie Selwyn with the play he secured the American rights. That his judgment was correct is borne out by the tremendous success of the comedy in New York, where it ran for one year at the Selwyn Theater to capacity business, an artistic success as well as a financial one, the critics unanimously proclaiming "the best play that the metropolis has seen in many years"—and several went so far as to say that "The Circle" was "the best written and constructed play that had been presented on Broadway in a decade."
The Selwyns have staged "The Circle" in the elaborate manner that is so characteristic of a Selwyn production, and while one set suffices for the presentation of the comedy they have provided a scenic production that would make an interior decorator blush with shame. It is doubtful if ever a play has come more highly recommended—for "The Circle" in addition to playing one year in New York, one year in London, also ran one year in Paris.

LETTER REFERS TO
WOOD RIVER MASSACREHenry T. Rainey Recalls Grandfather's Story of Happenings
Subsequent to Incident in Early History of Illinois.

In a recent article in a series
which the Journal is now publishing under the caption "Morgan County's Centenary," Frank J.
Hein, who compiled the story,
made reference to the Wood River
massacre and to conflicting stories as to the fate of the Indians, who perpetrated the terrible deed.

S. A. Fairbank left at the Journal office yesterday the following letter from Henry T.
Rainey of Carrollton, giving some interesting facts about the Wood River massacre. The grandfather of Mr. Rainey and also the grandfather of Mrs. S. A.
Fairbank was Samuel Thomas,
a member of the company of rangers which pursued the Indians following the massacre. In the letter Mr. Rainey gives his recollections of his grandfather's
story of the pursuit of the Indians. The letter follows:

Carrollton, Ill., January 30, 1923.
Dear Allan: I am in receipt of your letter. I thank you for calling my attention to Mr. Hein's interesting article. With reference to your inquiry as to the fate
of the Indians who were responsible for the Wood River massacre, I desire to say that you are right about it; my grandfather Samuel Thomas, was a member of the company of rangers which pursued the Indians. The life of Samuel Thomas, while it describes the massacre, does not tell
the story of the pursuit of the Indians, but I have heard Samuel
Thomas tell the story many times.

I was twelve years old when he died. He was one of this company of rangers (Capt. Whiteside's company, I think), which pursued the Indians north from the forks of Wood River. The route taken undoubtedly led
across what is now Morgan county. There were eleven Indians in the party. The rangers were well mounted, while the Indians
did not have any horses. I have heard grandfather say that it was easy to follow the trail the last day of the pursuit. They simply followed the drops of blood which fell from the noses
of the exhausted Indians.

The rangers caught up with them near the present site of the City of Beardstown and killed
them all—not one escaped the
vengeance of the rangers.

There were seven persons killed
in the Wood River massacre—
Mrs. Reason Rogan, a sister of Samuel Thomas; two of her children and four other children, who were with her at the time. The massacre occurred Sunday, July 10, 1814.

The awful fate of these Indians
had the effect of completely pac-ifying all this part of Illinois, including what is now Morgan county. There were no further Indian troubles there.

In 1813 Samuel Thomas came to Illinois from Kentucky, settling at the forks of Wood River,
just south of where Shurtleff college now stands. He was a ranger in the war of 1812, serving first in Capt. Judy's company and later in Capt. Whiteside's company. All his service was in Illinois.

After the Wood River massacre
he came to what is now Greene
county and located his future
home and entered 80 acres of land. In November, 1818, he moved up to Greene county, built
his cabin and established the first permanent settlement in what is now Greene county. He lived on the farm he had selected until his death in 1873.

Very truly,

OBITUARY

The subject of this sketch was born on the old Clark homestead
on the 22nd day of October, 1837,
and departed this life on the 28th
day of January, 1923, being at the time of his death aged 85 years,
3 months and 6 days.

Sweetly and peacefully he passed away at the close of a busy
life, on Sunday morning just as the Sunday school bells were calling the Christian workers, and others as well, to their labors for
the good of humanity, just, no
doubt as he would loved to have it.

Reverend W. S. Clark was the third child of Edward J. and Sarah Clark, who were pioneers
in this community, coming here
from Virginia in the year 1825.
He was a very delicate child during the early years of his life.

Rev. W. S. Clark was a good man. His life work was given over to Christian education and advancement. He filled a gap in the community that very few
could fill. He was constantly called upon to perform weddings,
to take charge of funerals, to comfort the sick, and to also comfort those in sorrow or distress.

He was ever ready also to give
of his means, to the support of the ministry and the good of the church. He assisted in the erection of Old Shiloh church on his father's farm just west of the old home. It was here that he was converted and it was here that he saw many of his own people
converted, and many of his neighbors and friends also. As time went on he saw the old church
disintegrate and go down, its
membership die or move away,
and finally what few that were
left have found church homes
elsewhere, some coming with him
to the church in Manchester.

He was a great reader and kept
in close touch with the current events of the day, and was especially well informed as to the advancement of the church and its attainments.

During his early life he taught
school for several years, teaching
at Akers, Keller and Nowa.

On the 26th day of March,
1850, he was united in marriage
to Miss Tabitha Akers, and to this union five children were born, Bessie, born on the 12th
day of February, 1856, died in his fifth year. All the other children survive, viz: William F.
Clark, now living on the old Clark
homestead; Ella, wife of R. J.
Ash, of this community; Oscar
M. of Yuma, Colo., and Charles
W. Clark, of Brownsville, Texas.

Besides his immediate family
he also leaves to mourn their loss
one brother, Fletcher P. Clark,
the banker, and four sisters, Mrs.
V. A. Hughes, Mrs. Belle Potts,
Mrs. Frank Smith, all of Manchester, and Mrs. Margaret Van-Tuyle of Roodhouse, with other relatives and a host of friends.

When his country called its
sons to arms during the dark period of the sixties, he willingly performed his services and life with
many other boys of the community, and left here in August, 1862,
for the front. In December of the same year he was captured with others of his company (Company
G, 91st Vol.) at Elizabethtown, Ky., and shortly after being released, returned home.

In the seventeenth year of his age he was converted and joined the M. E. church, and in his nineteenth year he was licensed to preach and joined the Illinois annual conference in 1858. For fifteen and one-half years he gave his entire effort and energy to the ministry, being blessed with several revivals of religion, and later
retiring on account of a nervous breakdown. Some of the many places he served as pastor were:
Rantoul, Palmyra, Franklin, Mason City, Bath, Chandlerville, Littleton and Athens. For seven years he was county president of the interdenominational Sunday school work in Scott county.

During Thanksgiving week in the year 1921, he was stricken with paralysis, and a few days
later he was again stricken, and
during this interval he has been confined to his home almost constantly. While he has been a great sufferer he has borne his affliction patiently.

FRANKLIN STANDARD
BEARERS MET SATURDAY

The Standard Bearers of the Franklin M. E. church held a meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Misses Eloise and Mary Mansfield in Franklin. The devotional services was led by Miss Irene Keplinger while program leader was Miss Edith Hill.
The latter read the paper of the afternoon, the topic of which was
"King Jesus Has Come."

After the program came a social hour and the serving of delicious refreshments. The decorations and refreshments were such as to accord with the St. Valentine's day season.

PROGRAM FOR ORGAN RECITAL

The following is an outline of the beautiful and unusual program which will be played by
that master organist, Charles M.
Courboin, in his recital at the Central Christian church Thursday night next:

1—Rollo F. Maltland (1884)
Concert Overture. This is a fine
piece of straight forward organ-
writing and an illuminating example of good music.

2—Edwin Grasse, Serenade.
A charming lyric fancy.

3—Alphonse DeBoeck, Allegretto. A composition by De Boeck, a professor in the conservatory at Brussels, something piquant and rare for so mighty an instrument as the organ.

4—Alphonse Mally (1833-1918), Invocation. Mally was one of the best known composers
and organists of Belgium.

5—Caesar Franck (1822-1890), Chorale No. 3. The last
and greatest of this composer's wonderful work, described by Mally as a tone-picture of the
strife between good and evil,
covering the whole gamut of human expressions.

6—Robert Schumann, Sketch
No. 4.

7—Alexander Russell, Bells of St. Anne de Laupre. The opening theme is based upon the actual notes played by the beautiful
chimes in this cathedral, and is carried thru the procession of the faithful, the miracle and the benediction.

8—Firmen Swinnen, Chinoise-
rie. A bizarre sketch from the pen of a prominent Belgian organist.

9—Camille Saint-Saens (1835-1921), Marche Heroique. A procession of valiant harmonies
proudly marching to a stirring climax, arranged for organ by Guilmant.

In providing this program it
has been the aim to avoid as much as possible the highly technical and strictly classical and to give music lovers a widely varied
selection of really beautiful compositions, interpreted by an organ master of unusual attainments
and experience.

Show will Report—Dealers
Will Select Spaces for Exhibits

A call has been issued by the secretary of the Jacksonville Automotive Dealers association for a meeting to be held Tuesday
night at six o'clock at the Dunlap hotel. At this meeting the committee in charge of platting
the Auto Inn where the Auto
Show and Merchants' Exposition
is to be held next month, will report and the various dealers
will select their booths from the space allotted on the west side of the building. The same general plan has been followed as in previous years as regards spacing.

The space allotted to merchants
and others interested in the exhibits will be presented to them
for selection sometime during the coming week, but space may be reserved at any time by calling upon Chas. M. Strawn, J. G.
Berger or J. F. Claus.

As has already been noted the contract for decorations has been let and the building will present a beautiful appearance
and will be brilliantly lighted.

The automobile dealers will have full charge of the dances
which will be held each night at the inn during the show. Several organizations have asked to participate in these dances as was done last year, as the association
allows them a certain percentage
of the gross proceeds.

accidentally crashes into their studio. Jules Rousseau, an old music master who despaired of kindling the flame of genius in his pupil, seizes upon a love which blossoms between Tom and Rosalie to prevail upon the girl to dance in the Moulin Rouge, a notorious night cafe in Paris, that Tom's lessons might continue, the master pledging secrecy. But the master betrays her secret and Tom bitterly denounces Rosalie.
He then throws all the anguish of his soul into his bow. The master is elated and confesses that he bartered the girl's good

have been denied him. Tom saves Rosalie from a watery grave and pledges his everlasting love and devotion.

PLAN FOR FUNDING BRITISH WAR DEBT WITH THE PRESIDENT

Statement Accompanies the Plan But Not Made Public

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The plan for funding Great Britain's war time debt to the United States was turned over to President Harding tonight by the debt funding commission. Accompanying the plan was a statement by the commission suggesting methods of congressional action translating the results of the commission's negotiations into law. The statement was not made public.

While the commission in a protracted conference was formulating its views for transmission to the president new rumblings of opposition to the plan were heard in both house and senate. Senator Lodge, the Republican leader in the senate visited the white house to discuss the situation with President Harding and Representative Mondell, house Republican leader conferred with Representative Burton of Ohio, a member of the funding commission, as to ways and means of handling the settlement legislation in the house.

Present indications are for the president to send the settlement plan with a brief message concerning it to congress early next week, but this has not been definitely determined. The administration appears confident that it can muster all the strength necessary to bring action on the legislation before the end of the present session March 3, but Mr. Harding is represented as desiring to have everything done in advance that will speed a final settlement. Increasing evidence developed to the house demands planned to oppose the interest rates contained in the settlement plan on the grounds that they constituted a discrimination. Several of them declared that the rates proposed to be applied on the British debt were materially lower than the United States pays on its own obligations.

Members of the funding commission were said to have talked frankly among themselves as to the obstacles to be overcome in pushing the necessary legislation thru congress. It was generally agreed, it was said, that complicated legislation should be avoided and it appeared that the recommendations to the president urged that a complete change of the law be avoided at this time.

CORBIN, Ky., Feb. 3.—Arrival today of additional national guardsmen augmenting the 25 sent yesterday by Governor Morrow upon request of city authorities who reported that the situation growing out of the shooting of a railroad man and a special policeman last Tuesday and the subsequent resignation of several special officers, had gotten beyond control, found the town quiet with no indications of further trouble.

With state troopers patrolling the downtown section and a heavy snowfall and low temperatures discouraging any tendency of citizens to congregate possibilities of continued absence of violence were heightened.

ANOTHER MOVEMENT FOR RESTORATION OF PEACE IN IRELAND

Delegates to Conference Will Meet in Dublin Today

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Feb. 3.—Another movement for the restoration of peace is taking shape with the arrival here from all parts of Ireland of delegates to tomorrow's meeting of members of the old Irish Republican army. These members who have remained neutral in the conflict between the free states and irregulars since the signing of the Anglo-Irish treaty recently organized. They are said to number 5,000 and at least 200 of their representatives are expected to attend the conference here. All these men may be said to be Republican in sentiment as their neutrality in regard to the treaty was interpreted as dissatisfaction with the pact, but all have declined to join either the irregulars or the free state army. It is thought that Minister of Defense Mulcahy's recent reference to "gleam of hope" and his call on Republicans who disapproved of the methods followed by the irregulars to speak out were based on the calling of this convention.

The meeting will be held behind closed doors a communique being issued for the benefit of the press. No basis for peace is yet apparent to the disinterested observer, and the leaders of the opposing sides are countering themselves with repeating their old arguments.

The eight hour bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Jewell, and in the House by Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill, the first bill from a woman in the state's history, is opposed by various business and commercial associations and industrial organizations and a few women's clubs of the state. Support is given the measure by number of labor organizations, women's associations and welfare societies of the state and all are reported lining up for battle. The deficiency measures aiding the adjutant general and the attorney general totalling $195,000 which have passed the senate will likely be passed by the house Tuesday, and sent to the governor for his action Wednesday. They are immediately effective upon the executive's signature as both carry an emergency clause. One gives $75,000 to Attorney General Brundage for use in prosecuting the Herrin trials and the other gives Adjutant General Black $120,000 to meet national guard debts due to strike last summer.

Answer These Important Questions—

Have you ever had cause to doubt that you enjoy perfect vision? Do your eyes feel sore after a spell of close work—aching, smarting, or feeling as if sand or grit was lodged behind the lids? Do you ever, while reading, find that the print suddenly "goes misty" and confused? Is it necessary for you to hold your book or newspaper further away from the eyes than formerly—or do you need stronger light? Do you find that reading or sewing for an extra hour or two causes headaches?

If you have noticed any of these peculiarities with your eyes you should have them carefully examined. Call and see us at once.

White Clothes on the Line

Do the clothes which hang on your line Monday morning glisten and gleam in the sunlight? If not you may be sure your neighbors are talking and branding you as a careless housekeeper. For there is no longer an excuse for poorly washed clothes.

Electricity has raised the standard of washing beyond the power of elbow grease. Washboard calisthenics, no matter how strenuous, will not produce satisfactory results—the principle of washing is flushing, not scrubbing.

THIEVES MAKE LARGE HAUL OF SMOKES HERE

Rob Jenkinson-Rode Wholesale Firm of 65,000 Cigarettes—Stole Truck from Babbs Garage to Transport Loot.

A daring robbery, apparently by experts, was executed here sometime Friday night when thieves stole a truck from the S. W. Babbs garage, backed it up to the Jenkinson-Rode wholesale house, and hauled away 65,000 cigarettes, 760 cigars, and a quantity of candy. The loot was taken out of the city and to parts unknown; but it is believed the thieves were working for a wholesale trade in stolen goods.

The wholesale firm estimate their loss well into the hundreds of dollars, and the Babbs truck used by the thieves is valued at $1,600. It is probable also that the thieves stole the gasoline to run the truck, as two ten gallon cans of the fluid were missing Saturday morning from the Standard Oil filling station in the east part of the city.

Police or county officials have obtained no clue to the identity of the thieves. They seem to be professionals at the game and will no doubt be hard to catch.

WINCHESTER WOMAN CLAIMED BY DEATH

Mrs. Martha Kirkman Passed Away after Brief Illness at Home of Daughter—Winchester News Items.

Winchester, Feb. 3.—The many friends of Mrs. Martha Kirkman were surprised and grieved to learn of her death, which occurred Friday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Lashmet. The deceased had been ill for only about a week, and many of her friends did not know her illness was of a serious nature. The fact that Mrs. Kirkman had reached a somewhat advanced age made her condition the more serious, and although everything possible was done for her the end came as noted above.

Mrs. Kirkman was a woman of fine character, devoted to her family and home, and loved by all who knew her.

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. John Lashmet of Winchester, Mrs. Leslie Strong of Roodhouse, Thomas and Harry Kirkman of Winchester. High Percentage Hatches

With the Queen Incubator
Everyone wants big hatches, and the Queen will deliver them. Besides being wonderfully well constructed, in the way of materials and workmanship, the Queen embodies the most scientific principles of artificial incubation.

The Queen is doubly insulated. First there are double walls of California Redwood, forming a dead air space. Second, corrugated strawboard is used between the wooden walls. Proper insulation adds considerable expense to the manufacturing cost, but it is an absolute requirement of a good incubator.

The Queen is the only incubator that carries out the double Redwood wall construction all around, and provides a double wall front, in the way of two separate doors. The outer door is a solid panel of Redwood that is hinged entirely independent of the inner door and is fastened with a sash lock that draws it tight, thus making the loss of heat impossible.

The inner door is also of Redwood construction, containing a panel of glass the full length and height of the egg chamber.

Queen Brooders are Good Step-Mothers

They are designed to raise the chicks in all kinds of weather at any time of the year, with complete protection day and night. The heating system gives an abundance of heat, distributed properly, while plenty of fresh air is provided automatically without draughts.

We sell the Queen because we are here to stay and cannot afford to trifle with your eggs. Come in and see how a Queen operates.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE
WINS FROM SHURTLEFF

Final Score Is 27 to 17 in Favor of Blue and White—Freshmen Trounce Juniors in Class Game.

Illinois College defeated Shurtleff College in David Prince gymnasium Saturday evening the final score being 27 to 17.

Coach Harmon presented a patched lineup for the fray but it worked well, especially Goebel who played at center in place of Mellon, who is under the weather. Goebel did some excellent work, scoring five field goals and six free throws and came within one of making as many points as the entire Shurtleff team. He went out on fouls before the first half ended and thereafter the Blue and White fell down in her offensive work.

Harmon was able to use a number of men in last night's fray and the showing made indicates that Illinois will have a squad next year that will make any team in the state step some to win.

Shurtleff, considering the fact that six of the eight men used last night were playing together last year, did not make the showing he should. In fact Wones, who was one of Shurtleff's best bet last year was taken out and Potter substituted early in the game.

Following the College game the Junior-Freshman inter-class game held the floor. In a fast and furious contest the Freshmen christened their new basketball uniforms by trouncing the upper class team, 2 to 18. The new regalia consists of natty maroon shirts with the class numerals "26" in black on the chest.

Savage and Vogt, at forward, for the Freshmen, formed a pair of scorers which the Juniors could not stop. Johnson played a bang up game at guard for the yearling team.

Rubendall and Riess were the heavy point makers for the Juniors. The score:

"I have never found a man who puts his whole heart and soul in his work as does Rickey," Mr. Breadon asserted.

JACKSONVILLE WINS
FROM WAVERLY HIGH

Old Time Rivals Defeated For Second Time By Score of 18 to 15—Game Was Bitterly Contested.

Waverly, Feb. 5.—In a bitterly contested but cleanly fought game Jacksonville high triumphed over Waverly high here tonight by a score of 18 to 15.

While both teams put everything they had into the fray the contest was remarkably free from fouls. Jacksonville had seven fouls called while four were called on Waverly.

The members of both teams were off in their shooting as time and again each had good shots only to miss by a narrow margin.

Hunter, Deatherage and Putnam scored the points for the locals while Ashbaugh, Bryan and Hughes scored for Waverly. Ivie who has been doing excellent work for Waverly on the offense was a marked man last night and failed to register a point.

HOW SCHAEFER FORCED UMPIRE TO CALL GAME

"The funniest situation I ever saw staged on the ball field, happened in Cleveland back in 1906 or 1907," says Charley O'Leary, now assistant to Miller Huggins at New York.

"I was playing shortstop for Detroit at the time. When the game started it looked like rain. Cleveland made three runs in the last of the fourth. It looked as if we were beaten and of course we decided to play for rain.

"Billy Evans was doing the umpiring. In the first of the fifth it started to sprinkle and we started to do everything possible to delay the game and annoy the umpire.

"Evans refused to be annoyed, and when our side was finally retired it was raining pretty hard. That made it a ball game and we were anxious for Bill to call it.

"Nothing doing," he replied 'you boys enjoyed yourself so much the last inning, it's a shame to deprive you of your fun.'

"We played the next three innings in a driving rain. There was no chance of either side making a run. Evans let on he enjoyed the rain and was deaf to our entreaties to call it.

"Finally, Herman Schaefer, now dead, borrowed a raincoat and umbrella from a fan and appeared at his position at second in that regalia.

"He was the funniest sight I ever saw on the ball field, raincoat buttoned high up, umbrella in one hand, glove on the other. 'That was too much for Evans—he called it.'

THIRD BASE HARD
POSITION TO FILL

According to the official averages of the American League, third base was the hardest regular position to fill during the 1922 season. For no less than 24 players were tried at the hot corner by the eight clubs in the circuit.

Of this number, Boston ranked high, using five men at the post, while the Yankees and Washington were knotted for second place, each employing four tossers at the bag while the race was progressing.

Then came St. Louis with three, followed by Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and the Athletics with two apiece.

Of the two dozen third sackers, but three of them played in 100 or more games. Jimmy Dykes of the Mackmen topping the field with 141 to his credit. Joe Dugan, who was with both Boston and New York, was in 123 frays, and Bobby Jones Detroit, 119.

At second base a marked contrast was displayed—but 13 men toiling at the keystone sack during the campaign. And of these, as many as eight were in 120 games or over. In fact, five of the group got into 154 tilts. This quintet included Collins, Chicago; Ward, New York; McManus, Browns; Pratt, Boston and Harris, Washington.

Obviously those five clubs didn't make a change at the cushion all season. Of the others, Detroit used two men, and Cleveland and the Athletics three each.

TRAGEDY STALKS THROUGH NEW YORK SUBWAYS

HYMAN LEVINE, HIS WIFE AND SON, WHOSE SEPARATION IN NEW YORK SUBWAY ALMOST ENDED IN A TRAGEDY.

By NEA Service.

New York, Feb. 3.—The slam of
a subway door, the surge of a rushing crowd and thousands of strangers, carried into the maelstrom of New York's great catacombs of commerce, the subway, are swept along
—to disappointments, misfortune,
and often death.

They form the bulk of the cases reported to the Missing Persons Bureau of the Police Department. Few get public notice until they reach a tragic ending.

Not long ago Joseph Gallo, of Fairfax, S. D., came East with his wife.
They went to sail for their old home
in Czechoslovakia to retire. Passage was engaged. They started from their hotel for the pier.

The subway was crowded. Gallo
pushed his way through the crowds.
His wife was close behind. But before she could board the train, the guard had slammed the door, separating husband and wife.

She boarded the next train. It was the wrong one. Speaking little English she couldn't make herself understood. She was lost among millions.

Two days later the frantic husband found her—in the morgue. She had died of fright.

A few weeks later Hyman Levine,
a Newark (N. J.) grocer, came to the dock to meet his wife and son, coming from Russia to join him.

Again a subway door closed. Another family was separated.

But this time fortune threw into
the path of the panic-stricken woman a man who understood her language and who wasn't too busy to stop.

He escorted the lost mother and son to a police station. There the husband later found them. A repetition of the Gallo tragedy had been avoided.

After two years' hard work, two brothers decided to go back to Italy
and spend Christmas with their old mother. They spent all their savings for passage on the Majestic on her last trip of the year. But they got lost in the subway and reached
the pier in time to see the boat leaving. They could take no other boat.
All their dreams were shattered.

According to officials at the Grand Central and Pennsylvania railroad stations, 50 persons a day miss their trains as a result of becoming lost in the subway. Police say hundreds are lost in New York daily.

In 1875 Mr. and Mrs. Franks moved with their family to the farm northwest of the city now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rutherford. In 1890 they moved back to Jacksonville and

Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Franks

have since resided at their present home in North Fayette street.

Mrs. Franks came to Jacksonville in 1847. She made the trip from New York to Naples, Illinois, entirely by water. It took one month to make the trip. Mrs. Franks remembers stopping at Detroit, Chicago and other places. She recalls that at various places along the canal from Chicago, mules were used to pull the boats. Arriving at Naples the party took a train to Jacksonville. This railroad was the first ever built in the state.

At the 94 years old Mrs. Franks is still in good health and assists in her household duties. She has a splendid memory and recalls many incidents of her early life in Jacksonville. She was for some time employed in the home of late Jacob Strawn, known as the "cattle king." He fed cattle for Mr. Strawn for a number of years.

Mrs. Franks has been an invalid for two years, but in past years was engaged in the management of his farm east of the city. He is 90 years old.

The wedding anniversary at the Franks home today will be celebrated quietly.

Mr. and Mrs. Franks have five children: Mrs. Joseph Comes and Mrs. Henry Martin, of this city; A. F. Franks, of East St. Louis, Ill.; Henry Franks, of Kansas City, and Joseph Franks, of Hennessey, Okla. The grand children are: Owen E. Franks, of Jacksonville; Maurine Franks and Howard Franks, of Kansas City, and James Franks, of Nebraska.

"DADDY LONG LEGS" AMBITIOUS EFFORT

Will Be Offering of High School Dramatic Club Tuesday Evening—Cast Has Been Rehearsing For Many Weeks.

When the big green curtain on the high school stage draws apart on the first act of "Daddy Long Legs" next Tuesday night, Jacksonville play goers may prepare themselves for two hours and more of intermittent laughs and tears, with the former predominating. It is believed that this, the first big production of the high school dramatic club, will prove one of the best amateur performances for several years. The students have been working after school hours for over two months that their play may prove a success, and judging by yesterday's rehearsal it will prove so.

"Daddy Long Legs" is a modern fairy-tale of a real life Cinderella and a modern Prince Charming, only the little maiden of the ashes in this play is a poor drudge in a foundling home with a head full of dreams and a spirit that drudgery has not crushed out. And Prince Charming is a rich and prosperous man of affairs, who becomes interested in the asylum and overhearing Judy's rebellion against a harsh mistress and a dreary life, decides to give her a chance in the world, and unknown to the little slavey arranges to send her to college with money to spend on frocks and frills like other girls. Judy is not to know who her benefactor is, and sees only the shadow of his tall figure on the wall as the leaves, and so she decides to call him "Daddy Long Legs."

While she is in college she writes him such saucy and humorous letters that he decides to visit her college and see what she is like in her new world. He makes the visit incognito and meets his ward socially under his own name, while he has been writing to her under an assumed name. Judy finds his interest in his charge deepening into emotions far more serious than those of a guardian and the pretty love story is in full swing.

Miss Vera Coultas is wonderfully adapted to the part of little Judy Abbott, the orphan, and Russell Deatherage makes a handsome Jervis.

Many will be the laughs heard during the first act which is placed in the Orphans home, although pity for the little children may become paramount at times. Life in a girls college is comically portrayed in act two. Jimmy McBride, who wishes hopelessly for Judy's heart and hand, will bring forth many chuckles with his funny college boy antics.

But wait until the fourth act, which is bursting with surprises for everyone, before you give up hope for the complicated affairs of Judy and her "Daddy Long Legs."

CHILD IS RUN DOWN BY TRUCK IN WEST

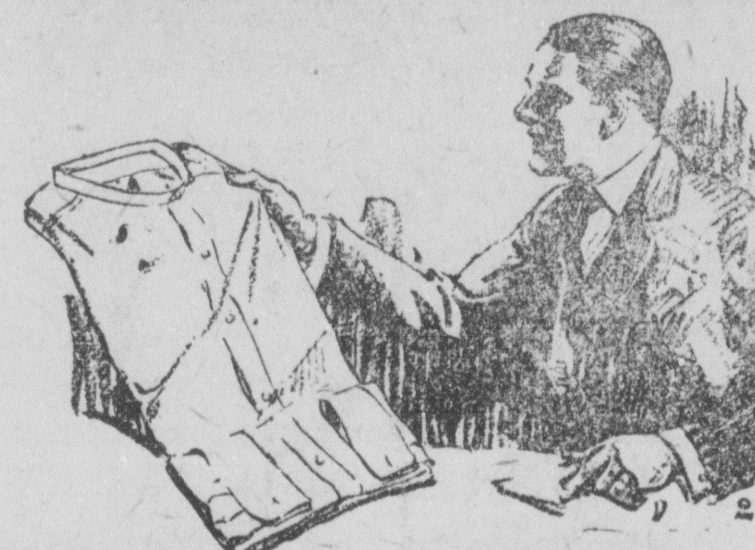

Mary Ellen Hardwick, three years old, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hardwick, recently had a narrow escape from death in Los Angeles, where the family are spending the winter. The child was knocked down by a passing truck while the family were waiting for a street car to take them to the beach.

While X-ray pictures were being taken at the hospital, Mrs. Hardwick fainted and fell, inflicting a deep wound on her head. The pictures showed that the child had only cuts and bruises and no fractures. Both mother and child are now recovering.

OVERHEATED PIPE CAUSES FIRE ALARM

An overheated stovepipe at the home of Mrs. Mary Escorse, 1013 North Fayette street caused small damage to one of the rooms of the house yesterday morning. An alarm was turned in to the fire department from the residence of James A. Scott. The firemen made a run to 1043 North Fayette street, but on finding no such number on that street returned to the department. Neighbors turned the damper on the pipe shutting off the flames. The room was damaged by smoke which escaped from a hole in the top of the stove pipe.

TELLS OF EVOLUTION OF MAIL SERVICE TO POSTOFFICE MEETING

Assistant Postmaster General Follows Evolution from the Dromedary of Biblical Times to the Mail Plane of Today—Is Interesting History of the Letter

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON.—From the use of the dromedary in biblical times to the swiftly flying mail plane of today, the history of the letter, as a written means of communication between peoples, was traced by Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover in a speech recently to postmasters and postal employees in a postal conference convention at Winston-Salem, N. C.

"On the postoffice job," he said, "nothing can take the place of the individual. While in many great industries the human equation has been reduced to a minimum, no one has yet invented anything to take the place of a man in the delivery of letters. Today, as a hundred years ago, we are dependent on the nerve and sense of loyalty of a human being for the punctual delivery of our mail regardless of the weather and everything else.

"The history of the postal service goes back as far as the sixth century B. C. and may be called the handmaid of civilization and tracing it from the dispatch bearer of the Assyrian and Roman times to the airplane service of the present day, the postal business has doubled in the last decade while the number of employees has increased only nine per cent.

"The use of the postage stamps is now common and the mailing of letters so general that it seems as if there never was a time when this practice was unknown. But the stamp itself is comparatively new, while the sending of letters is older than Solomon.

EMPLOYMENT IS ON UP GRADE

Year of 1922 With Exception of July Shows Steady Increase in Employment.

Chicago.—(By The Associated Press).—Employment in Illinois industries continued on the up-grade during December, while the year of 1922, with the exception of a slight decline during July witnessed continued improvement in the number of workers employed, according to a review of the industrial situation compiled by the general advisory board of the Illinois department of labor, made public today.

"There was a gain of 1.5 per cent in volume of employment during December," says the review, reflected in the signed reports of 1,513 employers in manufacturing, public utilities, general contracting work and mining. This followed gains of two per cent and 1.7 per cent in the two preceding months and compares with a decline during December, 1921, amounting to 4 per cent. Concerns in every manufacturing group of industries except food, beverages and tobacco had more employees at work in December than in November.

"Car and locomotive concerns expanded the number of workers by 15.8 per cent while the average earnings rose nearly 20 per cent.

"Clothing increased employment in their factories and the busy season is on in the shoe factories. Concerns making building materials continued to operate on a scale not far below the high point earlier in the year. There was a slight increase in stockyards workers. Production in the coal mines expanded further, the average earnings amounting to 37.96.

"The trend in food industries generally was downward, as it was in many of the wearing apparel lines.

"The demand for unskilled labor fell short of the supply for the second time in the last eight months, although the condition is seen to be far better than either of the last two winters. The great amount of surplus labor appears in the agricultural communities.

CHRISTIAN DOCUMENTS ARE FOUND IN JAPAN

TOKIO.—(By A. P.).—It is reported that Marquis Kokujun Tokugawa has discovered among his heirlooms a large stock of old books and other articles relating to Christianity in Japan during its forbidden period in the Tokugawa era. These will be donated to the museum of Tokio and that of Mito, the native city of the Marquis. The books will be placed at the disposal of students of Christian history in Japan.

Since the time of the third Shogun there had been in the Tokugawa treasures a series of large boxes known as "ever closed cabinets." The present Marquis, upon deciding to open them, was surprised to find a number of books and personal effects that included copies of the Bible written in Japanese kana and representing the original sounds of foreign language, while the dresses were those worn by Japanese Christians at the time of the makusa Christian Rebellion.

Up to now, relics of the Christian era in Japan consisted of paving stones engraved with a cross upon which Christians were forced to walk, rosaries and statues of the Madonna and Child under the form of Kwanon, goddess of Mercy, holding a child to avoid detection. These are found chiefly in Southern Japan where Christian villages also were discovered in remote mountains dating from the time of the persecution.

Presents from the pope to the Lord of Sendai, who received them upon the occasion of the first Japanese embassy to Rome, are preserved in Northern Japan.

Making Germany Pay Roger Babson Summarizes Several Proposed Plans Sees Present European Condition as Darkness Before the Dawn.

Wellesley Hills, Mass., Feb. 3.—Roger W. Babson's statement last week on "What's the Matter With France," has aroused widespread comment and criticism.

It is all right for Babson to preach, writes a high French official, "but it is another thing to collect the money that France must get, and get at once. Every week we are going further into debt. Our financial condition forced us into Essen. It was a case of sink or swim. We swam."

Mr. Babson again reiterated his statement that the trouble with Europe was primarily spiritual rather than financial. He still contends that the French tactics in the Ruhr districts are fundamentally wrong and will complicate the problem rather than simplify it. Discussing the actual payment of the reparations, Mr. Babson continues: "Several ways of collecting the $32,000,000,000, that Germany owes as reparations have been suggested."

"The French plan is being tried out at present. It promises little in the way of tangible returns. Regardless of how much the French are able to collect at the point of the gun in the Ruhr district, the methods they are employing, if continued, are bound to increase hard feelings between France and Germany. They are sowing the seeds for another war."

"The English view approaches the problem from another angle, but Mr. Balfour's suggestion that we cancel another's debts, and thus reduce greatly the German reparations to us, is not absolutely unfair. All nations involved, except the United States, are borrowers as well as lenders. The person who is borrowing as much as he is lending can enter into the agreement that all should cancel his debts. He forgives a million dollars and likewise has a million dollars forgiven him. The United States, however, is at the end of the line. These nations owe us $10,000,000,000 and we owe them practically nothing. The mutual cancellation of debts is not a solution to the problem. I believe that an effort toward reason, rather than force, however, is a step in the right direction.

"One of the most feasible solutions suggested so far is that proposed by C. W. Barron, owner of the Wall Street Journal, and Boston and Philadelphia News Bureau. He suggests that a receiver be appointed for Germany and that the matter be handled exactly as that of any other great bankrupt. Secretary Hughes' idea to have a commission of practical bankers, rather than a commission of diplomats and politicians, is a similar step in the right direction.

"If we look at the matter," continued Mr. Babson, "from either of these receiver points of view, we face the real problem. If Germany had $32,000,000,000 in gold it might be a simple matter to collect it, but she has no such amount on hand. Germany has only about $260,000,000 in gold. This means that some method must be devised by which Germany can get the gold with which to pay the reparations. France says that if she cannot pay in gold she must pay in machinery, coal and other property. But taking away these tools does not help her earning power. It simply makes it harder for her to earn anything. It is like attacking a carpenter's tool kit for a debt. It makes it impossible for him to work or earn anything and he never can pay up.

"Obviously, if the reparations are to be paid, some plan must be worked out which will enable Germany to sell more goods in England, France and the United States, than she is selling today. This suggestion, of course, raises a howl from our manufacturers and the manufacturers in all these other countries. They say that by such a plan Germany would ultimately be the winner rather than the loser because she would ultimately have the trade of the world. They say that this suggested receiver for Germany if on the job, would develop great foreign trade and when the receivership was discharged the German nation would still have this tremendous commercial machine. England has thought the thing thru to this point and it is this that has made her so anxious to cut down German reparations.

"If such a commission should be appointed and should decide what Germany can pay and will pay, the shock to our commercial and financial organization could be somewhat reduced by having payments begin in small amounts and gradually increase over a period of several years, then gradually decrease again so that the commerce of the world and the financial machinery involved in international trade could adjust itself to the changes.

"The problem is very complex," continues Mr. Babson, "but it does not appear hopeless. Individually we can all insist that it be handled by a board of commissioners, who are Christian business men—who approach it with the idea of coming to the solution that will be best for the world as a whole. In the interest of future peace, we should protest loudly against any proposals offered by politicians, or others who are interested primarily in getting as much as they can for themselves regardless of the consequences.

"I am not pessimistic about the European tangle. I feel that it will work out some way. Secretary Hughes is making a very good start. Mr. William G. McAdoo also has some sound suggestions in connection with the matter. Men who were formerly rabid on one side or the other, are gradually showing an open-mindedness toward any practical solution. I still insist, however, concluded Mr. Babson, "that the problem is largely spiritual. The good of the United States is ultimately bound up in the good of the world. This applies to France as well as to Germany, to England as well as to France, and to the United States most of all. From those who have most, the most is expected. Statistics show that the world war came upon us because man's intellectual powers had increased so much faster during the last fifty years than his spiritual powers. Our system of control was one of equilibrium. The same condition still exists, and before the financial problems of Europe can be corrected the spiritual condition of Europe must be improved.

General business in the United States meanwhile continues slightly above normal plus 3 per cent to be exact. The action of foreign exchange and other international barometers strongly suggest that while things are looking very dark in Europe it is always darkest just before dawn.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES CAUSE OF DIVORCE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO.—Alcoholic beverages were responsible for 331 cases leading to domestic court action involving children in the Chicago district of the Illinois Humane Society last year, according to the report of George A. H. Scott, secretary and counsel of the society. Alleged non-support contributed to 214 other cases, the report showed. Fines and costs imposed upon all cases of ill treatment of children totaled $4,256.50.

"The society received 1,790 complaints of cruelty to children during the year, involving 3,602 children," stated the report. "Of this number, the society aided and relieved conditions of 1,908 children, while 875 persons were admonished for cruelty to children. Forty-two children temporarily were placed in institutions."

A review of the cases arising from alleged cruelty to children showed that 342 charged beating, 104 abusing and 155 neglect. It pointed out that but three cases involved child labor. Wife beating led in the review of adult cases, with 69 cases reported.

Approve Action Offering Reward for Theft on Wilcox Farm—Annual Seed Day Also Held.

The executive committee of the Morgan County Farm bureau met Saturday morning in the farm bureau offices. At this meeting the action of the president of the farm bureau and the farm advisor in offering rewards in the case of the thefts which took place on the Holland Wilcox farm was approved by the board members.

The committee authorized the farm advisor to invite a representative of the Illinois Agricultural association to come to Jacksonville and explain the details of the joint membership campaign to the members of the Morgan County Farm bureau. In addition to paying and auditing the bills for the past month, $18 was set aside to pay for the record books furnished to women of the county who are keeping poultry records for the farm bureau and the I. A. A. The sum of $25 was appropriated for the use of the soils committee in carrying on the phosphate demonstration work.

The annual seed day, held Saturday at the farm bureau office brought many visitors to the office and was quite successful. There was a fine display of clover seed and several special seed displays attracted attention. Harold Joy had an excellent display of Iowa seed oats; Joseph Sanderson showed a fine sample of Red's Yellow Dent seed corn; and Fred Mollar's Mongol soy beans were much in demand. Mr. Parks, recently of Fulton county, was present and demonstrated poultry house, and a portable post-less fence.

INCOMPETENT TEACHERS ARE SCORED BY BLAIR

Springfield, Ill.—Incompetent and untrained teachers stand in the way of better education in Illinois and the only way to eliminate them is by an adequate qualification law, according to Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public instruction.

"It is much worse to compel children to sit day after day under the direction of an incompetent teacher than to sit in an unsanitary school building," Mr. Blair said.

"Will it ever be possible to guarantee to the parents who send their children to public schools that the teachers of their children will have that preparation and training which fit them for this work?" Mr. Blair asked in discussing the question of raising teacher standards.

"No such guarantee can ever be given," he replied to his own question. "Until we have changed our certifying laws so that the incompetent and the untrained cannot find entrance into the teaching profession and until we have provided ample training facilities to train all those who wish to equip themselves for teaching."

"Fine buildings, fine laboratories, fine apparatus, extended courses of study are well enough in their way and very essential, but they all come to naught unless the teachers have vision and the professional skill to utilize this equipment in the instruction of the children."

"The only certain guarantee of a better quantity and quality of education for succeeding generations is better trained and a better prepared teaching force."

CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS GIVING AID TO ALL RUSSIAN IMMIGRANTS

Adopted Policy of Welcome at the Outset of Its Existence Four Years Ago—Each Russian Student is Paid from Five to Six Hundred Crowns a Month and Lodging

(By The Associated Press)

PRAGUE.—The government of Czechoslovakia has consistently pursued a policy of welcome to Russian immigrants. At the outset of its existence, four years ago, it determined upon the far-sighted project of providing, as best it could, under the circumstances, for these refugees, and today it is giving positive support and excellent educational opportunities to an increasing number of Russian students. And at the same time it is witnessing the fruition of its generosity.

The government pays each Russian student from five to six hundred crowns a month, and in addition provides lodging in one of the Russian centers. There are three such large colonies of Russians in Prague, where more than two thousand men and three hundred women, both students and professors, find comfortable shelter.

Married students as a rule live elsewhere, and consequently are given an extra allowance for living purposes. Moreover, there are numerous subsidized boarding-houses where good food can be obtained at very low prices. This leaves each student with a little pocket money, so that the Slavic desire to hear good music or to go occasionally to the opera can be reasonably satisfied. At the special agricultural schools in the provinces, many of the students are lodged on farms so that they readily can get into touch with the practical end of their studies.

There are several thousand Russian specialists, educated in this country, ready today to go with Czech colleagues back to Russia to work for the rehabilitation of their homeland. The presence of these men, at the head of an army of 20,000 skilled railroad men, which Czechoslovakia likewise has ready at a moment's call, naturally signifies an enormous potential advantage, and shows that this government is not asleep to the possibility and importance of

Start Your Motor INSTANTLY in Cold Weather with the Imperial Primer

Cold weather starting troubles will be forever banished if you put an IMPERIAL PRIMER on your car. One stroke of the PRIMER, within easy reach on the dashboard, sprays fireable, vaporized gasoline into the manifold and starts your motor instantly in the coldest weather.

Saves Your Battery

Your Storage Battery possesses only about 50 per cent of its normal efficiency during cold weather. Grinding away in a useless endeavor to start a cold motor will soon ruin the battery. The instant starting made possible by the IMPERIAL PRIMER will add months to its life. This feature alone is worth many times the price of the outfit.

Saves Your Motor

It does away with the use of choke and thus prevents excess gasoline which is drawn into cylinders from running down into crank case and diluting the lubricating oil and in this way saves bearings and cylinders from excessive wear due to thin oil.

SHE REFUSED HIM

"I was engaged to the prettiest little doll in Indiana, but my stomach and liver trouble had made me so grouchy that she broke it off. I tried all kinds of medicine and doctors and got no relief. The gas blew me up like a porcupine and I had awful colic attacks. Finally I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and it has certainly fixed me up fine. I am now as good as ever." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. riders on mail coaches and young apprentices.

Romans Also Carriers
"The Romans, too, sent their letters by mounted couriers. The courier carried the message about twenty miles when he would come to a 'posta' where another messenger was stationed with a fresh horse. He, in turn, would be relieved by still another courier. Thus relay after relay the letter was sped on until at last it arrived at its destined 'posta,' meaning station or stopping place, and from that word we obtain the word 'post' as found in post office, postcard and many similar words.

"In the times of Benjamin Franklin, each letter was charged for by the sheet instead of by weight, and also for the distance it was carried. Ten cents was charged for one sheet, 20 cents for two sheets; and so on, and for every fifty miles another full fee was added. Envelopes were not used in those days, the letter simply being folded up and sealed.

"And now we come to the staggering figures showing the growth of this great business. In every single hour of the 24 there are mailed 1,400,000 letters and in every day of the 365 of the year, 33,600,000 letters slip into the box. To carry this great volume of letters, there was sold fourteen billion postage stamps, 57 million special delivery stamps, 38 million newspaper wrappers, 62 million postage due stamps used on short paid mail matters and a billion postal cards printed and sold, and, all counted, we used and sold 18 billion units during the last fiscal year. And, again, to carry this vast quantity of mail we operate a very large motor truck service, having in operation today 4,433 motor vehicles, and then in the carrying of this volume of mail by railroad it requires 21,000 railway mail clerks who cover 215,000 miles daily."

REAL ECONOMY

WHOSE tailor bill is the smallest?

IS it the man who buys so-called cheap clothes or the prudent, far-sighted man, who figures not first cost, but cost per season?

HAVEN'T you heard often from those with personal experience that a RENNER-MADE suit will outwear and look better than others of its kind?

NOW, when a thing serves its purpose well, it is worth more and actually costs less, doesn't it? Such thing is real economy.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, together with a few of the local members of the Board, met Thursday evening to make plans for the remainder of the school year and to complete the organization for the Endowment campaign which is soon to be opened.

A great many of the students are spending the week end at home or visiting nearby friends and relatives. The mid-year examinations closed Saturday at the regular hour.

Special observance of the Week of Prayer will be conducted under the leadership of Dr. Dan B. Brummitt, editor of the Epworth Herald. The regular services at the chapel hour at 10 o'clock are open to all friends who are interested in the work of the Christian colleges.

Several friends have contributed small amounts to the Professor Otto Soldam fund. President Barker expects to forward these gifts in a short time.

The Alumnae News Record just mailed is full of very interesting personal, and also has several articles of especial interest to the former students and graduates of the college.

The activities of the various students and the student organizations are quite remarkable in their results toward raising Endowment funds. The treasurer of the Endowment Committee turned over to the college $500 on Tuesday of the past week and expects to make additional payments in a few days. A number of the students are earning considerable sums of money by unusual methods. One girl is engaged in the shining business, several conduct beauty shops, and others take care of the children in various homes about the city during the absence of the parents.

MANCHESTER PLAYS ELKS MONDAY NIGHT

Local Tossers With New Men in Lineup Will Tackle Fast Team—Game Will Start at 8 O'clock

With a number of new men in the lineup the Elks basketball five will tackle the fast Manchester independent team in David Price gymnasium Monday night.

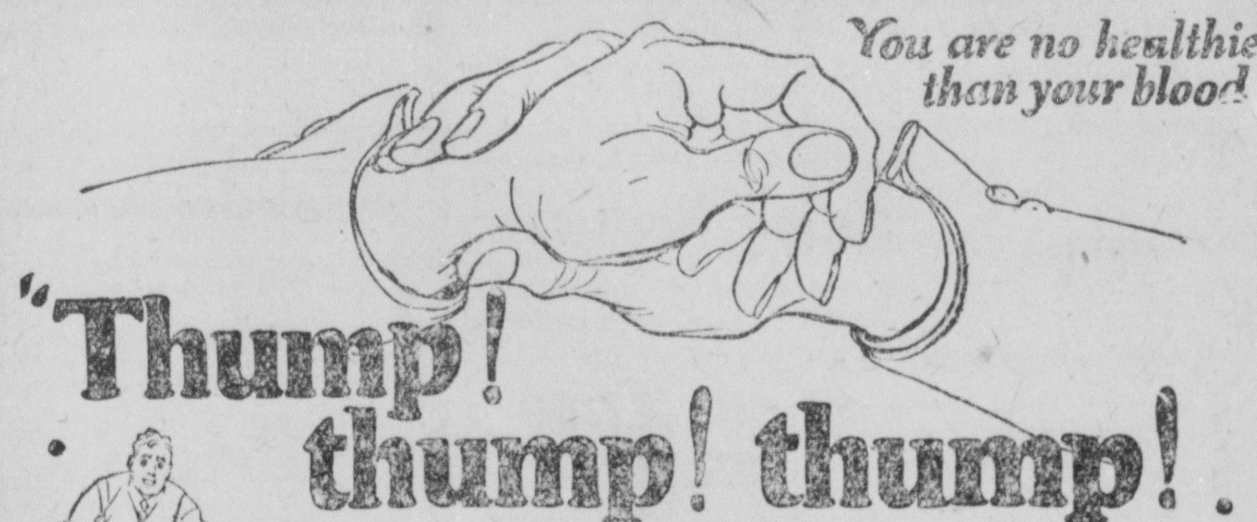

The Elks have not been going good so far and the main trouble has been lack of team work. It is believed that with some hard practice sessions that this trouble will be eliminated. If the men who have been secured put themselves to the task there is no doubt but that a formidable squad can be developed.

Ed Tomlinson star center on both the high school and Illinois College team has responded to the call. Dick Reynolds also a star on the high school team several years back has entered the team. Others who are available are Peunt Andrews, Woods, Cain, Kahl, Drummond, K and Coultas.

The game will start Monday night at 8 o'clock and should be full of pep.

You are sure of a good bet with Klondike or Old Reliable. BRADY BRO

Morgan County's Centenary

County Established January 31, 1823

Some Pioneer History

—FROM MANUSCRIPTS OF FRANK J. HEINL
In compiling this story of a century ago errors may have crept in and important facts may have been omitted. Suggestions and corrections will be acceptable.

The Kelloggs
In the autumn 1818 there came into Morgan county its first settlers, Col. Seymour Kellogg, his brother Captain Elisha, their families and Charles Collins, who erected two cabins near the head of the north fork of Mauvaisterre Creek, the vanguard of the host of pioneers soon to come and change the untamed wilderness into a thickly settled community within a decade.

A Wilderness
And it was a wilderness indeed. Well proportioned as between prairies and forests and well watered, it was a particularly attractive spot for the pioneers who almost invariably selected the timbered sections for their homes in preference to the wild prairie lands which have since proven more productive and far more valuable. The pioneer preferred the wooded lands along the water courses because they afforded water, fuel and protection from the winter's blast and the summer's heat and also from prairie fires which sent terror to the heart of the pioneer. The timbered lands were much easier to clear and till than were the prairies and it was also easier to erect primitive buildings in the timbered lands. Then, too, in the forests the settlers found nuts, fruit and game, honey in the many bee-trees and maple sap for sugar, and the waterways which, in the days before our lands were tilled and our country deforested, held their waters abundantly, furnished fish and congenial spots for the many wild fowls which were found in his region most of the year. And, too, there was mast in the forests for the settler's swine.

The fact that this county had so much native forests accounts for a large extent for its early rapid settlement as compared with the sections near it which are preponderantly prairie.

Forests and Waters
Forests flourished along all the numerous water courses.

The lands along Big Apple, Apple, Little Apple, Fanning's Lick and Coal creeks which flow to the south in the southern part of the county are empty into Apple Creek, the River la Pomme of the French, were densely timbered as were those along Sandy Creek, the River Mouse (Moss) of the French, Spoon, Little Sandy, Walnut and Willow Branch creeks which flow southwesterly from the southwest part of the county toward the Illinois River. Mauvaisterre creek, the Riviere Mauvalse Terre of the French flowing to the west across the county was densely timbered west of its forks and generous forests sheltered the north and south forks, the middle branch or Briar Fork and Prickly Ash branch. Coon Run, Wolf Run, Spring Run and Willow creek found their sources in the well timbered lands east of the bluffs in the west part of the county and flowed thru the sandy prairie west of the bluffs, the three runs into Dickenson Lake and Willow Creek into the Illinois River.

Indian Creek, the River Lablansine of the French and the Balance Creek of the early American pioneers with its many tributaries, Mud, Little Indian and Snake creeks, Lick and Cavanaugh's branches and Keltner's fork which flowed in a westerly direction across the north part of the county were densely timbered.

Prairies
Those parts of the county which were not forested were mostly prairie, which in the French word for meadow and was applied to any sort of land destitute of trees and covered with grass. These prairies varied in size from very small tracts to miles in extent.

"There are the gardens of the desert; these

The unshorn fields, boundless and beautiful.

For which the speech of England has no name—

"The Prairies."

The fresh savannas of the Sangamon.

Here rise in gentle swells, and the long grass,

Is mixed with rustling hazels; scarlet tufts

Are growing in the green like flakes of fire."

William Cullen Bryant

The largest prairie in the county was on the eastern side extending from the headwaters of Apple Creek on the south, which when first settled came to be known as Head of Apple Creek Settlement, north about fifteen miles to the headwaters of Indian and Richland creeks and on the west from the sources of Sandy and Mauvaisterre creeks, varying in width from three to fifteen miles, to the headwaters of Lick, Spring and Prairie creeks, in Sangamon county.

Diamond Grove Prairie
In pioneer days the most noted of Morgan county's prairies was Diamond Grove prairie, which took its name from Diamond Grove, an unusually attractive forest on the ridge just southwest of the site of Jacksonville. This prairie extended from Diamond Grove and what was in the days of the early settlers known as Wilson's Grove, the present Illinois College Grove, on the west to the woods along Mauvaisterre Creek on the east and to those along Sandy Creek on the south and included much of the site of the present Jacksonville and the fertile farm lands extending several miles south, southeast and southwest.

Jersey Prairie, northwards from the present Liberty, Buckhorn Prairie, southwest of the Jacksonville of today, South Prairie, which extended from Diamond Grove to the southwest; North Prairie, north and northwest of the present Lynville; Joy Prairie between the Chabin and Concord of today, and the forests along Mauvaisterre creek, North Prairie in the northeast part of the county, Sweet's Settlement, Prairie between the north and middle forks of the Mauvaisterre Creek and Brown's Point Prairie between the Woodson and Murrayville of today, and eastward there from were well known prairies in pioneer days.

Sisters of Our Saviors
Offer Suggestion

The Chamber of Commerce has received a number of responses to its request that citizens send in suggestions as to civic improvements which might be made in Jacksonville. The following letters have been received from the Sisters at Our Savior's Hospital and from the Service Star Legion:

"The Chamber of Commerce in this city has been very efficient in its undertakings, and for soliciting suggestions for food to be accomplished it could scarcely be excelled, yet, we would like to recommend another.

"This community is composed of some splendid growing institutions and the personality of them must be respected—lets not forget that the hospitals have grown from a one story building to the present height and if their founders did not consider Jacksonville worth living in they would not continue so extensively, therefore since they are situated in a turbulent locality, and have made a strenuous exertion to eliminate noise and confusion, we think, with one more effort, and without expense, this organization can, and will make this improvement, we are.

Yours Respectfully,
Many of this community; Sisters of the Holy Cross, Our Savior's Hospital.

The Chamber of Commerce have requested suggestions from the good people of our city, to help make it more attractive and desirable as a place of residence.

It has already an enviable reputation—Go east, west, south or north—and you will hear from fellow travellers, "Oh! Jacksonville that beautiful town with the grand old elms!"

But it cannot long hold this enviable reputation without great care. The long hot, dry summers are lapping their vitality, already there are many vacant places where monarchs have fallen—These should all be replanted and trees planted on other streets.

South Main thru South Jacksonville is well shaded only a few breaks in the long line, which no doubt will be remedied as new homes continue to be built.

But would it not be a great addition to our beautiful streets, if the line of trees could be continued east past Nichols park and join the Victory avenue which we hope, now the new park is completed, may soon be finished.

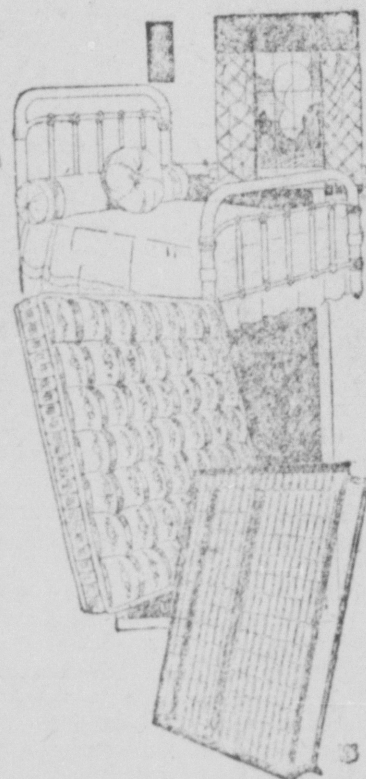

Every resident along the road would plant elm trees, thirty or forty feet apart, in front of his own property, we would have our continual line of beautiful shaded avenues, six miles long, including the Victory drive in the new park. Not quite equal to the twenty-five, fifty and one hundred miles of memorial avenues in Canada planted in memory of their soldiers—but ours would be pleasing to visitors as well as to ourselves. Publishing Committee of Service Star Legion.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Speculators for the advance succeeded in materially raising prices in today's brief but active session of the stock market. The restraint
 which the market has been under
 in response to the unfavorable
 foreign news seemed to be wiped
 away and prices were bid vigorously in reflection of further constructive developments in the domestic situation which included
 additional increases in sugar and Pennsylvania crude oil prices and the optimistic nature of the weekly mercantile and trade reviews.
 The demand embraced a wide
 list but was most effective in the oils, rails, steels, equipments, and a few specialties in which pools
 have resumed operations. There was a marked absence of bear
 pressure and the realizing sales
 that poured into the markets were comparatively easily absorbed.
 Twenty standard railroads
 shares closed today at their highest average this year and the average of 20 standard industrials
 was only slightly below the year's high mark.

Sinclair Oil, trading in which has been comparatively light and
 unusually within narrow limits
 developed a sudden burst of activity, more than 30,000 shares
 representing a net gain of 1 3/8 points.

Weekly clearing house statement showed an increase of $13,- 13,000 in loans, discounts of investments and a decrease of $19,- 425,000 in the reserve of member
 banks in the federal reserve bank.
 Net demand deposits increased $9,803,000 and time deposits decreased $2,830,000.

Aggregate reserve totalled $525,791,000, making a deficit in reserve of $5,730,000 against excess reserve of $14,624,520 the previous week.

The following advances in cents
 per $100 bonds were made in United States government bonds.

 4 1/4-44; third 4 1/4-14; fourth
